Travel and Expense Quick Guide

Source ID ATT-PDF-002 | Version 3.3 | Owner: Finance Operations

Submit on time

Submit claims in Nimbus Expense within 15 calendar days after the expense date. Attach an itemized receipt for every individual expense of INR 500 or more.

Domestic travel limits

Category	Limit	Evidence
Hotel	INR 6,500 per night excluding taxes	Hotel invoice and proof of payment
Meals	INR 1,200 per travel day	Itemized receipt when an individual item is INR 500 or more
Local taxi	Actual reasonable cost	Receipt or app invoice
Air travel	Economy class	Ticket and boarding proof

Approval route

1. Employee submits the claim and business purpose.
2. Reporting manager confirms business necessity.
3. Finance Operations checks policy and receipts.
4. A functional director approves any single claim above INR 25,000.

Common rejection reasons

- Missing business purpose or attendee names
- Claim submitted after 15 calendar days without explanation
- Missing itemized receipt where required
- Upgrade or premium purchase without prior approval

Worked examples

Scenario	Outcome
Hotel invoice INR 6,200 plus taxes	Within the fictional nightly limit; submit invoice
Hotel room INR 7,400 excluding taxes	Above limit; written exception approval required
Meal INR 420	Receipt encouraged but not mandatory under the INR 500 rule
Total claim INR 28,300	Functional-director approval required
Taxi booked through an app	Attach the app invoice showing trip and amount

This document is fictional and intended only for RAG ingestion and evaluation practice.